This matter was opened to the Board of Massage and Bodywork Therapy ("the Board") upon receipt of information that respondent had been convicted of shoplifting from Walmart on April 22, 2014. Respondent was assessed a total amount of $458 in fine and costs.

The Board finds that the conduct underlying respondent's conviction, insofar as it implicates a dishonest intent, relates adversely to the practice of massage and bodywork therapy within the intendment of N.J.S.A. 45:1-21(f).

Respondent has expressed remorse for her conduct, indicating that she "lost her head" on the date of the offense following a period of disruption when she had been forced from her home for approximately eight months by damage due to Hurricane Sandy, and more recently by the illness and in one instance the death of close family members. Respondent maintains that the conduct underlying the offense will never recur.

The Board also finding that the within order is sufficiently protective of the public health, safety and welfare, and for other good cause shown; penalty shall no longer be stayed, and the $200 shall become immediately due and owing.
